

EINIG-ZENZEN WINES

MASSAI - VIOGNIER

BACKGROUND:

At the southern tip of Africa, where two mighty oceans meet in the shadow of the Table Mountain landmark, lies the famous Cape in the world. Known locally as the Mother City, Cape Town is the gateway to the South African wine region and one of the great wine capitals of the world. Here the cultures of Africa, Europe and the East have met and mingled for over 350 years, shaping a city both ancient and modern, rich in colorful history and culturally diverse. With this favorable combination of climate and soil, more than 4,340 farmers cultivate some 108,000 hectares of land under vines. Their farm workers and co-operative cellar staff, together with their dependants, constitute a workforce of some 345,500 people. About 834 million liters of wine are produced annually.
